New Hanover Medical Center proposes food service renovation

RALEIGH- New Hanover Regional Medical Center in Wilmington has filed an application with the Certificate of Need Section of the N.C. Division of Health Service Regulation to renovate its Food Services Department.

A public hearing for this project will be held at 1 p.m. on Aug. 14 in room N-202 of Cape Fear Community College, Downtown Campus, 411 North Front St., Wilmington.

The proposed $6-million dollar renovation of food services includes renovation and redesign of the existing kitchen, a new mechanical room, the patient nourishment area, the food preparation area, existing cafeteria food service area and seating area; and expansion of the dry storage area.

Any person may file written comments concerning this proposal. Comments must be received by the Certificate of Need Section no later than July 31 at the following address:
